a. Duluth Liquor Store Retailers

The City is in receipt of a request from six of the seven package store retailers requesting the Board consider recommending to the Mayor and Council an amendment to the City's ordinance by reinstating the language which would restrict the number of package stores allowed within the City Limits, based on population. Bernard Roberson, owner of Duluth Package will speak on behalf of the six package store retailers.

b. Section 3-281(a)- Sale of Growlers

Section 3-281 of the Code has language which restrict the sale of package malt beverages in growlers in any established engaged in the sale of distilled spirits. Following a request from a local restaurant owner licensed for consumption, staff contacted the State and was told that there are no restrictions in State Code which would prohibit. Staff is recommending approval to authorize the City Attorney to research and if no issues are found, to recommend to the Mayor and Council an amendment to remove the restricted language, for consideration.
