Public/Media Release

Duluth, Georgia - On June 11, 2018, Officer Kang with the Duluth Police Department noticed a vehicle without a working taillight/brake light. Officer Kang initiated the traffic stop and began his roadside interview. During the course of the investigation, the driver (Freeman, Charles) gave a fake Georgia drivers license. The front seat passenger (Maahs, Alesha) gave an Georgia drivers license, which was fake too. Duluth officers were able to find out their real identities, both individuals had many active warrant out of Gwinnett, Forsyth, and Barrow counties for several felonies.

Both suspects were transported to Gwinnett County Jail.
