Media Release

On June 20th, the Duluth Police Department responded to a Missing Person call. Officers obtained the description from the husband, of the 26 year old, black female that left the home. The husband was attempting to locate her for approximately 20-30 minutes, then called the Duluth Police to assist.

Duluth Police obtained a description of the female and her mental illness and broadcasted it over our radio. At 12:13AM, a volunteer that was monitoring our cameras throughout the City of Duluth, was able to locate a female matching the description walking through the parking lot of LA Fitness at 3455 Peachtree Industrial Blvd. The volunteer was able to dispatch officers to the location and to investigate. The officers were able to confirm her as the missing person and contacted the husband to pick her up.
