Media Release

On March 31, 2017 at approximately 1740 hours the Duluth Police Department responded to the Suntrust Bank at 2750 Buford Hwy, which is inside the Publix grocery store, in reference to a bank robbery that occurred. Officers arrived, however, the suspect left the location with the money. During the investigation it was learned that the suspect passed a demand note and indicated he was armed. He was given the currency by the bank teller. As he fled, a witness was able to obtain a partial tag and a description of the vehicle as the suspect left the location. Our robbery was the latest in a string of robberies which involved multiple agencies – Roswell, Suwanee, and Johns Creek. The FBI assisted each agency with their investigation. Lineups were shown to our witnesses and all witnesses positively identified the suspect in our case.

Duluth Police Department charged Robert Frank Mueller, 32 year-old with Robbery by Intimidation 16-8-40.
